Taste
Lebanon
Ahlan. Welcome. Bienvenue

We offer one-day culinary tours around Beirut. This is a unique opportunity to get to grips with Lebanese food at its most raw (sometimes quite literally), avoiding places where tourists abound and, instead, taking our guests to places that only locals frequent. We meander through the city, experiencing a variety of foods, carefully selected for their quality by our team, from traditional mezze platters, Armenian bistros, to offal sandwiches, with plenty of options for vegetarians as well.
